

Acts 22

Something to Start Us Off

- If you had to share your life story in a minute, what quirky detail would you include?

Something to Notice

Let's dive into the details of Acts 22—notice the people, places, and actions that drive this chapter!

- How does Paul begin his defense to the crowd in Acts 22:1-5?
- What does Paul share about his encounter with Jesus in Acts 22:6-11?
- Who is Ananias and what role does he play in Acts 22:12-16?
- What vision does Paul describe in Jerusalem in Acts 22:17-21?
- Describe one notable detail from Paul's encounter with the Romans in Acts 22:22-30.

Something to Learn

Key Insights:

* Acts 22 shows Paul boldly sharing his faith. His Roman citizenship, a valued status, granted legal protections in the empire's provinces like Judea.

Discussion Questions:

- Why do you think Paul starts by sharing his past training and his role as a persecutor of the church?
- What do you find most interesting or unique about Paul's conversion experience?
- In what ways does Ananias influence Paul at the earliest stage of his Christian life?
- What do you make of the crowd's reaction to Paul and his message? How about the response of the Romans?

Something to Take Home

- Paul was able to share his conversion story quickly concisely when he had the opportunity. Can you see why that is a valuable tool or skill in personal ministry?
- Paul used the fact of his Roman citizenship wisely in this chapter. What details of your life might be helpful at some point in serving Jesus?